with 5) overs under his belt and a match haul of 7 for 127.

If the first innings was used towards about building bowling workload and hitting the good areas, the second innings was more about showing his skill-sets with the famous carrom ball bamboozling opposition batsmen.

In fact, the veteran off-spinner bowled 15 unchanged overs with the new Dukes and got able support from left-arm spinner Dan Moriarty who took 4 for 20 as Somerset all out for 240, adding only a single run to their overnight score of 239 for eight. Surrey now chase a 258-run target.

The script entirely changed in the second innings as Ashwin ran through the opposition getting enough drift and also using the carrom ball and off-breaks judiciously.

The Indian contingent will assemble in Durham where they would play a three day game against Combined Counties (Select County XI) from July 20-22.

Stewards bribed, tickets forged? Maguire's dad hurt ribs in chaos

LONDON, AFP: England fans allegedly bribed stewards and forged tickets to enter London's Wembley Stadium for the Euro 2020 final, causing chaos that defender Harry Maguire said had left his father injured.

The Guardian newspaper on Wednesday quoted an anonymous fan as saying ticketless fans used the messaging app Telegram to share advice on breaching security before and during Sunday's disturbances, adding to anecdotal evidence of a planned event.

The report came as Maguire revealed his father suffered two suspected broken ribs and struggled to breathe after being caught up in the incident.

Alan Maguire, 56, and the Manchester United player's agent Kenneth Shepherd were trampled by unruly ticketless fans as they entered the stadium before the match between England and Italy.

"It was not a nice experience—it shook him up. It was scary. I don't want anyone to experience that at a football match," Maguire told British tabloid The Sun.

European football's governing body UEFA on Tuesday charged England's Football Association over the unsavoury scenes and will appoint an "ethics and disciplinary inspector" to investigate the pre-match incidents.

The infractions included fans booing Italy's national anthem, the lighting of a firework, a mid-game pitch invasion and supporters throwing objects.

London's police force said it made 86 arrests and that 19 of its officers were injured in connection with managing the Euro 2020 final.
